Lessons from the Kitchen

Bible Hour 2017-18

We have kicked off Bible Hour for the 2017-18 school year. Thank you to all who have volunteered to help. This year we are learning lessons from the Kitchen. Every student will go to three classes each night. They will attend a Bible Lesson, they will learn an Object Lesson from Chef Dubios Kitchen, and they will do a Craft that goes with the lesson of the night.

This past Sunday we had a great start. Chef Dubios (Tim Fariss) did a lesson on how salt adds flavor to things much like we are to add “flavor” to peoples’ lives. The students sampled chips and got to decide whether they were better with or without salt. Linda McGregor taught the children the Bible Lesson based on Matthew 5:13. Danielle Smith did a craft with the students using salt and water colors to make colorful crosses. Finally, we ended with a puppet show written by Emma Cantrell and Tatum Young.

Let us encourage you to bring your children to Bible Hour!
